A Spicy Night Out [NZ School of Food & Wine – Award Winner]

A premium Salted Martini with strong chipotle, orange and lime notes. Channel your inner Bond, because this one's only available shaken, not stirred.

Duck-Fat Washed Old Fashioned

This twist on a delicious classic adds a hint of game that takes this drink to a whole new level. This combination of sweet and savoury simply makes the mouth water.

Lewis Road Creamery Tiramisu Martini

Made with the most exquisite chocolate liqueur New Zealand has to offer, this is literally a liquefied fine Italian delicacy. A true dessert in a glass.

Come On Baby, Light My Fire

Premium gin, raspberry and chartreuse mixed using a flaming waterfall to create a heated sensation that is then extinguished and poured over ice to create a steaming effect.

An Irishman In New York

Picture yourself in the sprawling suburbia of Manhattan, sipping on its namesake, only to discover they've replaced the local Englishman with an Irishman named Teeling.

The Mutineer's Merchant Milk

A winter warmer that'll remind you to go ahead and light the fireplace before you start sipping. Trinidad's finest Angostura 7-Year-Old rum, maple and milk - balanced better than a pirate walking the plank.

Arr Ya Free Tonight?

Angostura Reserva Rum and Galliano Amaretto stirred to perfection and balanced with ginger ale and fresh lime.

Golden Dream

Remember those days in the Cossie Clubs? This cocktail will take you right back there with it's creamy orange flavour and subtle vanilla notes.

Apple Pie

Just like Mama used to make – this cocktail is served short and delicious. A blend of cinnamon, pineapple, apple and amaretto.

Bellini

A bubbly cocktail for bubbly personalities. This one comes in your choice of peach or raspberry, paired with French Blanc de Blancs.

It's Going To Be A Banger

I definitely think the old Harvey Wallbanger is going to take off again...

Sneaky Snickers

Just like the candy bar – this martini-style concoction includes strong hints of nougat-styled hazelnut, chocolate and cream.

Long Island Iced-Tea

The precursor to any good night must include equal doses of vodka, tequila, gin and rum, stirred with fresh lime and a splash of cola.
